

Duck Stories

Read each story problem and write the number fact below it.

A mother duck caught three ladybugs and five grasshoppers for her babies. How many bugs did she catch in all?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

A duckling was watching nine spiders on a web. He got hungry and ate six of the spiders. How many are left for him to watch?

$$\square - \square = \square$$

One mother duck laid ten eggs in her nest. Three of the eggs have hatched into ducklings. How many eggs are left?

$$\square - \square = \square$$

Rosie collected four duck eggs on Friday and five duck eggs on Saturday. How many did she collect on both days together?

$$\square + \square = \square$$

Fred has five pet geese, two ducks, and three ducklings. How many pet birds does Fred have altogether?

$$\square + \square + \square = \square$$

